

Contents

|                                                                                                                                                                                 |      |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|
| Acknowledgements                                                                                                                                                         | viii |
| Introduction. Deservingness: Reassessing the MoralDimensions of InequalityAndreas Streinzer and Jelena Tošić                                                     | 1    |
| PART I. Deservingness: Genealogies, Struggles and Ideologies                                                                                                             |      |
| Chapter 1. Caring for the Old and Letting Them Die:A Political Economy of Human WorthSusana Narotzky                                                             | 31   |
| Chapter 2. Must the Tired and Poor ‘Stand on Their OwnTwo Feet’? Tools for Analysing How Migrants’Deservingness is ReckonedSarah S. Willen and Jennifer Cook | 68   |
| Chapter 3. Deserving Classes without Class: Explaining theNeonationalist AscendancyDon Kalb                                                                      | 101  |
| Chapter 4. Comparing Deservingness: A Reflexive Approachto Solidarity and CrueltyErik Bähre                                                                      | 126  |
| PART II. Categories, Policies and Negotiations ofDeservingness                                                                                                      |      |
| Chapter 5. Hartz IV: Affective and Sensual Registers ofMoral InferiorityStefan Wellgraf                                                                          | 147  |

|                                                                                                                                                                                                 |     |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Chapter 6. Unemployment, Deservingness and Ideological Apparatuses: A Case Study from Turin, ItalyCarlo Capello                                                                      | 173 |
| Chapter 7. The Politics of Austerity Welfare: Charity, Discourses of Deservingness and Human Needs in a Portuguese Church ParishPatrícia Alves de Matos                              | 199 |
| Chapter 8. 'Here, Morality Is a Sense of Entitlement': Citizenship, Deservingness and Inequality in Suburban AmericaElisa Lanari                                                     | 222 |
| PART III. The (Un)Deserving Migrant/Refugee                                                                                                                                              |     |
| Chapter 9. Ambivalences of (Un)Deservingness: Tracing Vulnerability in the EU Border RegimeSabine Strasser                                                                           | 251 |
| Chapter 10. The Politics of Deservingness among Resettled Bhutanese RefugeesNicole Hoellerer                                                                                         | 278 |
| Chapter 11. Suffering and Vulnerability Reconfigured: Refugee Images of Hungarian Migrants Working in German Refugee Accommodation InstitutionsIldikó Zakariás and Margit Feischmidt | 304 |
| PART IV. Debt Relations: The State, Market Actors and Debtors                                                                                                                            |     |
| Chapter 12. Do Mortgagors in Hardship Deserve Debt Relief? Legitimizing and Challenging Inequality during the Spanish Home Repossession CrisisIrene Sabaté Murriel                   | 333 |
| Chapter 13. Households on Trial: Over-indebtedness, State and Moral Struggles in GreeceTheodora Vetta                                                                                | 359 |

|                                                                                                                                              |     |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Chapter 14. Victims, Patriots and the Middle Class: The(Un)Deservingness of Debtors in Post-Credit BoomCroatiaMarek Mikuš | 385 |
| Afterword. Differentiating DeservingnessJames G. Carrier                                                                          | 413 |
| Index                                                                                                                                 | 429 |